

KENNEDY RAPS DAVEY PLAN TO END SALES TAX

Wonders Where He Will Get Money To Replace It; U. S.
Monetary Policy Upheld.

By The Associated Press
CINCINNATI, O., April 25—William Kennedy of Cleveland, candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, assailed Martin Davey here yesterday over the former governor's proposal to repeal the sales tax "without bothering to tell how he would get the money to replace these funds."
Davey also is a candidate for the Democratic nomination.
There will be no cost falls to be on this fall," Kennedy said. "We who are seeking office stand on our own feet." He warned that Sen. Vic Donahue would not be on the ballot and added there is "some doubt" as to whether President Roosevelt will do
"Gov. John W. Bricker is not an idiot," Kennedy said. "We Democrats must put our own house in order."

Defends Gold Policy
John McSweeney of Wooster, Democratic candidate for U. S. senator, told a Kent audience that America's huge gold reserve would be used to rehabilitate the world after the European conflict.
He defended the new deal monetary policy, he said:
"America is the Moses which has led a tired, hating world out of pestilence, famine and into peace."

At Columbus, a "write-in" campaign to nominate Donahue as the Democratic candidate for governor was launched by Charles Hubbell of Cleveland.
Hubbell, seeking the lieutenant governor nomination, said he would form a committee of "a million" to accomplish the "write-in." He sent letters to all Democratic county chairmen.
The C.I.O.-backed Labor's Non-Partisan League of Ohio announced at Cleveland that "after a thorough analysis of the leadership and programs of the Democratic and Republican parties," it decided not to endorse any candidate for governor in the May primary.

Criticizes "Duplicitous"
Chairman John Owens declared labor "would be irresponsible if it suddenly rushed to the support of a candidate for governor without considering that we would have a change from the great game of political duplicity which has been played in our state house at Columbus year after year."
The league declared previously that Sweeney and Herbert S.
Bischoff of Cincinnati were "both satisfactory" candidates for the Democratic senatorial nomination.
It endorsed William H. Whetzel of Troy (former Marion mayor) for lieutenant governor, Joseph T.
Ferguson of Garrettsville for state auditor, and Edward Lamb, C.I.O. attorney from Toledo, for attorney general.
It also endorsed congressmen for 13 of Ohio's 24 house seats.
The congressional endorsements included Samuel A. Anderson of Newark in the Seventeenth district, which includes Delaware county.

SAYS REDS PLANNED NEW U. S. CIVIL WAR

Dies Witness Accuses Communists of Mapping Strike.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, April 25—Ezra Cass, who said he had been an organizer for the Communist party in Los Angeles, told the Senate committee today that the party intended to plunge into civil war by calling a general strike in basic industries.
The witness identified what he said were minutes of the Los Angeles county communist party meeting in March, 1937.
He said, showed that the communist had adopted resolutions directing that communists be a "progressive caucus" in the Los Angeles Central Labor Council and that communist units be formed especially in C.I.O. organizations.
The main idea of the party, Cass testified, was to rally the people to a trade union movement, and particularly behind C.I.O. organization efforts in basic industries such as automobiles, steel, aircraft construction, rubber and communications.
Asked the purpose of this policy, he said:
"The communist party is an organization having a revolutionary intent."

Dance Hall Where 198 Perished in Blaze

At least 198 Negro merry-makers died in a dancehall at Natchez, Miss., when flames swept through the most-draped converted blacksmith shop, described as "the worst fire trap imaginable." Physicians said most of the dead had been suffocated by the thick smoke in the hall, or crushed in the stampede to escape. The fire was brought under control within fifteen minutes. Shown here is an outside view of the building.

Local Drug Firm Leases Room for Enlarged Store

Henney & Cooper, Inc., Acquires Warner-Edwards Room; To Become Walgreen Agency.

Henney & Cooper, Inc., operators of a West Center street drug store since 1909, today announced it has acquired a 10-year lease of the former Warner & Edwards Co. room immediately west of the present drug store location and will move to the new and larger quarters as soon as the interior can be furnished and equipped.
At the same time, the company announced it will become the Marion agency for the Walgreen Drug Co., a nationwide organization with headquarters in Chicago, and that the new store will be furnished and equipped on the plan used in Walgreen stores in cities throughout the country. The store name, however, will continue to be Henney & Cooper, Inc.
The company's lease will become effective May 1 and work will be started at once to remodel, redecorate and equip the store with new furnishings. Formal opening in the new location will be held as soon as the work is completed.
The plans announced today, officers of the firm said, came as a result of two developments. One was the desire of the company to obtain larger quarters for housing its growing business activities, and the other was the desire of the Walgreen Co. to establish a retail outlet in Marion. By working these out together, the firm will continue to carry all of the products and lines it has handled in the past and will have in addition the complete line of the Walgreen Co., they pointed out.
The Warner & Edwards room, located at 138 West Center street, will give the drug company a room 41 1/2 feet by 132 feet—twice the floor space of an ordinary business room. A large, modern soda fountain will be built along the west wall, and otherwise the store will be semi-departmentalized to facilitate the serving of customers.
All New Equipment
New fixtures and equipment will be used throughout. The modern type display equipment will be of white birch.
The Henney & Cooper store was founded in 1909 by J. G. Cooper of 460 Delaware avenue, who is now president of the company, and G. E. Henney of 554 Delaware avenue, now vice president. The only other executive officer is T. W. Jenkins of 255 Edgewood drive, who is secretary. All three are registered pharmacists, and in addition three other pharmacists are employed. They are L. D. Brady, T. L. Hedges and H. Kent Hauenstein.
The lease was made by L. K. Warner of Chicago, formerly of Marion, Henry H. Warner of Honolulu and G. E. Edwards of New York City, owners.
Negotiations between the store and owners of the building were handled through C. Schell, Inc.

DEBATE LAUNCHED ON WAGE-HOUR CHANGES

Confusion Surrounds Bills To Exempt Certain Workers.

By The Associated Press

STRIKE AT MARION LOCK PLANT ENDED

Union and Company Reach Agreement; Work Resumed.

Settlement of the 14-day-old strike at the Wilson-Bohannon Co., Mound and Buckeye streets, was reached last night when representatives of the company and Roosevelt Lodge No. 1231, an A. F. of L. affiliate, signed a wage-hour agreement.
Eighteen employees, on strike since April 10, returned to work this morning. They had conducted a picket line at the plant, which is engaged in the manufacture of locks, since the strike was called.
Terms of the settlement call for no hourly wage increase of one cent, one-half cent per hour, according to the local union of the Wilson-Bohannon Co., which is a branch of the A. F. of L. union.
The settlement also provides for a 10 percent increase in the overtime rate, and for a 10 percent increase in the vacation pay. The settlement also provides for a 10 percent increase in the vacation pay.

Air Barrage Clears Way As Germans Stage Drive

Nazi Capture of River Reported in Hurricane Advance to North. Hitler Air Forces Claim Heavy Damage in Raids on Shipping.

By The Associated Press
STOCKHOLM, April 25—German forces, on the offensive north of Oslo, were reported tonight to have taken Roros, within 70 miles of Trondheim, in a drive to reinforce that German stronghold on Norway's west coast.
Roros is on a railroad leading to the Trondheim region.
Bombers ranged ahead of the Nazi troops, inflicting terrific damage in the Glomra river region in blasting a path clear for the land forces.
This force, hurrying by forced march toward the vital seaboard front on which the whole Norwegian campaign may hinge, had advanced about 125 miles from Orpust since yesterday.
A second German force, pushing up another railroad which connects with the line through Roros, was reported to have reached Ringebu, about 110 miles north of Oslo.
Thus, with seemingly unrelenting progress, the Germans appear to have swept past Lillehammer vital for control of Oslo and southern Norway.
The British acknowledged that their forces, which had been in the Lillehammer region, had been compelled to retreat in the face of "increased enemy pressure."
With the British fleet reported bombarding Trondheim fjord, the Germans are believed now to be using all their effort to open land communications in that area.
Allied Drive Expected
Apparently, they anticipate an Allied drive south from northern Norway, where newly mobilized Norwegian divisions are being incorporated in the Allied forces.
As they did in Poland, the Germans are relying on intensive air barrages to clear a path for their infantry and reports indicate these tactics have been proving successful so far despite mountainous country poorly suited to mechanized warfare.
British Bombers blasted at a German-held fort commanding the entrance to the fjord which curves inland 80 miles from the Atlantic at Norway's middle.
British land forces fighting alongside the embattled Norwegians dug into new positions at the fjord's northern end where the Germans, with the cooperation of three destroyers, had driven the Allies back six miles from Steinkjer.
Allies Retreat
German artillery and aviation pounded the Allied forces into retreat northwest from Steinkjer, but the Allies insisted their general position was not endangered and that they had strong fortifications for their new lines.
Steinkjer is about 50 miles north of the city of Trondheim and an equal distance south of Narvik where the Allies landed. The 6,000 inhabitants of picturesque Steinkjer were reported to have sought refuge in the country while their town was laid waste.
Though principal fighting focused on the Trondheim fjord area, German warplanes also ranged the length of east central Norway while their land forces pressed farther the Nazi occupation.
Agdenes fortress, guardian of Trondheim fjord, and three nearby German destroyers replied to the British bomb attack with heavy anti-aircraft fire but it was not determined whether success was scored by either side. The destroyer had aided Nazi troops in repulsing the British at Steinkjer.
German mastery in the air was

BIKE PROGRAM SET SATURDAY

700 Young Cyclists To Take Part in All-Day Program and Parade.

Climaxing the organization of bicycle clubs in the city's schools, which has been a major project of the City P. T. A. council during the last year, will be an all-day bicycle safety program Saturday in which some 700 young bikers are expected to take part. Highlighting the day's activities will be a bicycle parade in the downtown business section starting at 10 a. m. An assembly of the cyclists at Central Junior High school at 11 o'clock and an exhibition bicycle polo game on the Central grounds at 2 p. m.
Schools Represented
Each of the 14 city schools which have bicycle clubs will be represented in the parade and each club is planning colorful decorations for their units, those in charge of the program announced today. In addition to these student groups, the parade will include a group of representatives of the Shelby Bicycle Co., members of the Marion Cycle club, many city officials and P. T. A. leaders and a highway patrol escort.
The assembly, which will immediately follow the parade, will include talks by city officials and presentation of charters to the school clubs. The club members also will give their pledge to support the clubs and to obey their safety rules.
Exhibition of All Bikes
The bicycle polo exhibition in the afternoon will be staged by the representatives of the Shelby company who are ranked among the most expert bicyclists in the country. In the parade, these men will ride a unique collection of vehicles representing the various stages in the development of the bicycle, including tandems, four seaters, and high-wheelers.
Arrangements for the program are being worked out by the P. T. A. council's safety committee. Deputy Sheriff W. W. Willis, safety chairman, will serve as marshal of the day, assisted by Cecil Gabler, visiting teacher in the city schools, and all the safety chairmen of the various schools.

PAPAL TIE HIT BY METHODISTS

Bishops Oppose Diplomatic Relations With U. S. and Vatican.

By The Associated Press
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 25—The council of bishops of the new Methodist church expressed opposition today to "any establishment of diplomatic relations between the Vatican and the United States."
The statement was contained in the bishop's quadrennial message to the church's general conference which began sessions here yesterday. It did not mention by name President Roosevelt's personal peace envoy to the Vatican, Myron C. Taylor.
"We," the bishops, informed the 776 conference delegates, "express our sincere appreciation of the President of the United States on behalf of world peace and especially his frequent emphasis upon the social and religious foundations of peace, and we are ready to join with the Catholic church and with all other religious or secular organizations to promote world peace."
"But we do deplore and must firmly resist any union of church and state, and are and will be unalterably opposed to any establishment of diplomatic relations between the Vatican and the United States."
These two paragraphs were in the middle of a dissertation by the Methodist bishops on the possibility of Christian churches throughout the world banding together in a union to promote world peace. The preceding paragraphs read in part:
"Of course there is no use of talking about union with a Roman Catholicism which today insists upon their infallibility as an authority even more strenuously than before the reformation."
The house labor committee proposed partial exemption from the hour standards for 18 operations not necessarily performed on the farm—such as vegetable canning. Rep. Barden (D-N. C.) sponsored another amendment which would exempt these same general occupations from both the wage and hour provisions.
Both bills would exempt white collar workers receiving more than $150 or $200 a month, along with all employees in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

FUNERAL PLANS FOR FIRE VICTIMS MADE

Toll in Natchez Dance Hall Fire Now 198.

By The Associated Press
NATCHEZ, Miss., April 25—Natchez officials speeded preparations today for burial of 198 Negroes who lost their lives when flames, racing through festooned boxes, trapped them in a one-exit dance hall.
The bodies, most of them still unidentified, filled three Negro undertaking establishments. Undertakers were called in from nearby towns to help prepare them for interment.
Police Chief Joe Sarto said he had arrested five Negroes suspected of setting fire to the corrugated-iron shanty building but declined to give their names. Sheriff Hyde Jenkins said his bureau indicated the fire was not accidental.
About 200 negroes were dancing to the jazz tunes of Walter Brown, Chicago orchestra leader, when flames broke out in the rear of the building and the room started in flames. Sarto and at least eight of his men were killed.

Suppression of English Reds Urged

By The Associated Press
LONDON, April 25—Sir John Anderson, minister of home security, told the house of commons today that he was "currently watching the activities of certain small groups of people of whom some appear to be deliberately seeking to hinder the war effort."
Sir John's statement followed a long and heated discussion in the house of parliament on the activities of the "Fifth Column" in England, which included demands for suppression of English Reds.
Sir John, who also is home secretary, declared in a statement that the "Fifth Column" was a "dangerous and subversive force" and that it was "essential to the war effort that it should be suppressed."

Fans Warm Up As Tribe Comes Home in Lead

Indians Nose Out Brownies, 6 to 4; Derringer Booked To Face Dean.

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, April 25.—Shivering Cleveland fans warmed up as the Indians came home to face the Browns yesterday.

The Indians won the top game yesterday with a 6 to 4 victory over the Browns.

The Indians posted a record of four wins and one defeat.

Paul Derringer was nominated to the Tribe on top today in an effort to win the season opener in the National League.

Bob who hurled a no-hitter last day was scheduled to face southpaw Edgar Smith.

Smith who won 14 and lost 10 posted his first defeat yesterday.

The Indians scored a run in the eighth inning on a hit by Hal Trosky and a single by Hal Trosky's single and a double by Chapman.

The Browns picked up a run in the eighth on a hit by Chapman and a base hit and three more in the eighth after Lou Boudreau's wild on a double-play ball.

John Allen is due to pitch in the closing contest of the Chicago series tomorrow.

As the first invasion into the grounds of the powerful Cleveland Indians and Red Sox neared, Cleveland fans opened the Tribes and depend on how well the team hits.

The club has shown a marked improvement, especially in the infield and the pitching staff looks as good as any in the league so far.

Hints On Casting

By MILTON KRAFT
National All-Around Champion

The dry fly must land delicately and float and Champion Milton Kraft here illustrates the easy cast which now achieves that. The cast proper brings the rod from the 11 o'clock position on the dial (left) to the 2 o'clock angle.

THE DRY FLY (Third in a Series)

Dry fly fishing is tops in scientific angling. To lay the fly gently on the surface of a stream, exactly where a rise has occurred perhaps 40 or 50 feet away, calls for real skill and delicate any true fisherman.

In starting we will assume that the fly already is afloat and the rod—according to our clock-dial illustration—points to 2 o'clock, the natural fishing position.

To pick up the fly for a new cast let the rod drift down from 2 to 4. Then bring it up to 12 (straight upright) and drift back to the 11 o'clock position. Here the forward cast starts, the power being increased from 11 to 2 where the cast ends.

If the caster carried the power through to the 4 position as in wet fly casting this power application would sink the fly. The dry fly must hit delicately and float.

When properly done, the back cast sends the line out in a beautiful straight stretch behind the angler, terminating in a half loop. To resume the forward cast too abruptly will snap the fly off.

Where trees or other hazards behind him do not permit this technique the fisherman uses a roll cast. This is done by elevating the rod up to the vertical, allowing the line to drift in to the shoulder, then flipping it forward to the starting position.

The line straightens out in front without having passed behind the angler.

Major League Sluggers Now Catching Up with Pitchers

Hitters Get 128 Blows in Wednesday Games Against 35 Hurlers; Yanks Show Power.

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The major league hitters now can quit blushing at the sight of a box score.

They started earning their way yesterday with an imposing total of 128 blows in seven games and for the first time this season the batters and not the pitchers decided the outcome of most of the ball games.

Some 35 hurlers an average of five a game saw service and it would be difficult to assign many honors to such an assortment.

The world champion New York Yankees unleashed their home runs against the Philadelphia Athletics and won 9-4 although their 11 hits were only one more than Red Ruffing gave the A's.

But the Yankees did include two homers by Red Rolfe and Joe Gordon while the A's could muster only one by Wally Moses.

The Cleveland Indians beat out the St. Louis Browns by the margin of a two-run homer by Ray Mack, 8-4, and took over first place in the American league.

The Washington Senators outbatted the Boston Red Sox 12-6 and thus were able to chalk up their first victory of the season 9-6. Seven pitchers, including Lefty Grove, paraded to and from the mound.

Even the games that approximated pitching duels were broken up by the hitters. In the Detroit Tigers' 2-1 triumph over the Chicago White Sox the margin of victory was a homer in the sixth by Rudy York. This was Tommy Bridges' second decision of the young season.

The New York Giants scored a similar sort of a victory over the Philadelphia Phillies 5-2 with rookie Babe Young breaking up the struggle in the eighth by a three-run homer. Hy Vandenberg gave five hits in winning and Hugh Mulcahy was touched for seven in losing.

The Pittsburgh Pirates dropped out of the tie for first in the National league as the Chicago Cubs triumphed 8-4. The Pirates got 11 hits off Bill Lee and four Pittsburgh pitchers allowed one less.

Paul Warner was used as a pinch hitter again and for the third consecutive time came through with a hit.

The Brooklyn Dodgers took a wild unruly struggle from the Boston Bees 8-6 coming from behind in the eighth after Whitlow Wyatt (who shut out the Bees on opening day last week) had given up five runs in the first three innings to squander the four runs Brooklyn gave him in the first inning.

PRACTICES SET

Practice sessions will be held tonight and tomorrow night at 5:30 at the McKinley park diamond by the First Evangelical and Reformed softball team. Manager John Hoffman reported.

STOCK RALLY FAILS TO HOLD

Market's Initial Gains Wiped
Out and in Some Cases Reduced.

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK April 25—A half-hearted attempt to rally the stock market failed today and speculators failed to attract much of a following today and initial gains of a point or more for leaders late were substantially reduced or canceled.

A lion of Carnegie Hall responding as of May 1 recent steel prices advanced some ten cents a ton before the opening but subsequently doubts were expressed regarding any last-minute rush of customers to take advantage of the present lower tariffs.

Bonds were narrow and commodities irregular Foreign markets did little either way.

A GAY YOUNG PRINCESS

PATTERN 4433
The Daveage set has always given its first ote to the near uncluttered look of a princess style. You'll like the Willow Lines pattern 4433 by Jane Carter. The pattern seems as they reach in top are not only grace full but they eliminate any darning through the bustline doing all the necessary filling themself. Bright buttons strung along the seams accent the lines. The center piece appears in contrast with a striped edge adds a becoming touch though shown an equally attractive version shows a studded neckline and dainty flower or ribbon trim. Let the Sewing Instructor teach you your stitches.

Pattern 4433 is available in junior sizes 12 13 14 15 16 and 17. Size 12 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrast.

HARDING TRACK SQUAD BEATS MANSFIELD; SET FOR RELAYS

Presidents Rout Visitors, 79 to 33; Prepare for Busy Series of Contests Starting Saturday.

Overcoming the handicap of curtailed practices because of inclement weather, Marion Harding's track squad downed the visiting Mansfield High team today, 79 to 33, yesterday afternoon at the Harding stadium. Coach George Niemel's proteges, who Saturday will compete in the annual relays at Mansfield.

The Presidents, displaying superior form against the visiting Tigers, grabbed first in every event with the exception of the century and 220-yard dashes and the 880-yard run. They engineered a clean sweep in the discus throw, Richard Edwards, Johnny Roberts and Bob Zellner, finishing in that order.

Equals N. C. O. Mark

The Niemel-coached crew looked particularly good in the high jump, pole vault, 440-yard run and 880-yard relay. Jack Lewis leaped 5 ft. 8 in. to win the high jump. His effort equaled the present North Central Ohio conference mark set several years ago by Bill Deaver of Bucyrus. Bill Walters soared over the 10-foot bar to take the pole vault and Dale Hudson outlasted the field in tripping the 440 in 16 seconds.

Harding without the services of two veterans, Ralph Howard and Bill Oliphant, in Howard suffered a sprained leg in practice early this week and has been under a physician's care. He has been working out for the broad jump and sprint events. Howard may be able to return for the Mansfield meet, Coach Niemel reported. Oliphant, active last year as a pole vaulter and broad jumper, is a member of the senior play cast and has been unable to devote any time to track competition.

Set for Relays

Coach Niemel will take a squad of 20 to 25 athletes to the Mansfield relays. Next week the team will visit Galion Tuesday afternoon. The following Saturday the Presidents are booked to defend their NCO crown in the annual six-way meet to be held at Ashland. Other activity on the Harding schedule includes a visit to Mansfield, May 7; Bucyrus here, May 10; at Mt. Vernon, May 14 and Mt. Vernon here May 21. One other dual meet, probably with Kenton, may be scheduled.

THE MARION STAR

Rampaging Ohio River Wins Tilt with Reds

The Cincinnati Reds would have needed boats for infield practice on Croley field when this picture was taken, so they wisely confined their efforts to a little warmup in the far reaches of the outfield. The last two games of the Reds' scheduled series with the St. Louis Cardinals were called off when the rampaging Ohio river poured a foot and a half of water over the ball park. The first game of the series was played although the dugouts were flooded.

Feller's Fireball May Shatter Records

By DILLON GRAHAM

Sports Editor, AP Feature Service

NEW YORK, April 23 — Now that Bob Feller has got his no-hit game and is being hailed as the greatest pitcher in baseball what are some of the modern day records he can shoot at to further enhance his claim to fame?

He might win 36 games (as some predict he will). Only Diz

Dean and Lefty Grove of today's hurriers have hit the 30 mark.

Christy Mathewson of the Giants won 37 in 1908 and John Clea-bro of the Yanks won 41 in 1904.

If he got in the groove Feller might win 28 or more games for three seasons. Cy Young,

Mathewson, Walter Johnson and Grover Alexander did it.

He might better John Coombs'

American league record of 13 shutout games in 1910. Or Harris

White's record of five successive shutouts. Then of course Walter Johnson's mark of 36 consecutive shutout innings is still on the books.

Led League 2 Years

Bob has led the American league in strikeouts for two years—240 in 1938 and 246 last year—and already has a running start toward Johnson's record of leading the loop in strikeouts for a dozen seasons. Feller already holds the strikeout figure for one game, 18.

Feller's no-hit performance didn't come as a surprise to baseball men. He's been too close before. Three times Bob had been on the threshold. Each time a scratch hit robbed him of the perfect game.

He served notice that a new star had arrived in his first sesson, 1938, when he struck out 17

St. Louis Browns to better the American league S. O. record.

BOB FELLER

His No-Hitter Didn't Surprise

Once in 1938 and twice last year he hurled one-hitters.

When Bob first came up he was just a strong country boy with a blazing first ball that he couldn't control. His wildness helped him to an extent for batters were afraid to stand close to the dish and while they were backing away some of Bob's itches tipped across for strikes.

Still Wild

Bob is still wild. He walked

208 batters, more than any other American leaguer last year. But his control has improved.

And in his years with Cleveland he has learned change of pace and has acquired a good curve.

Until last season Feller was perhaps the easiest pitcher in the major to steal bases on. But he worked so hard on this weakness that now it is dangerous for a runner to try burglary with Bob on the mound.

Bob is still a youngster, just 21, a husky kid with apple cheeks.

He is quiet and shy but has acquired poise. Although the top star of the Cleveland team, Bob is its hardest worker. That's one reason why Manager Oscar Vitt says he's the greatest baseball pitcher. There's nothing too trivial for Bob to learn about pitching.

And he's willing to practice everything until he has it down pat.

This look's like Feller's year.

Bob Feller's

Top Performances

Here are the high spots in Bob

Feller's short American league career:

Sept. 13, 1936—Struck out 17

St. Louis Browns to better American league record and equal Diz

Dean's National league mark.

August 25, 1937—Struck out 18

Boston Red Sox.

April 20, 1938—Pitched one-hit game against St. Louis. Billy

Sullivan beat out a tap to the box in the 6th inning.

Oct. 2, 1938—Struck out 18 Detroit Tigers to better Dean's major league record, but lost the game

4-1.

May 25, 1939—Pitched one-hit game against Boston. Bob Doerr singled in 2nd inning.

June 27, 1939—Pitched one-hit night game against Detroit. Earl Averill singled in 8th inning.

July 11, 1939—Hero of American league victory in annual All-

Star game.

Oct. 2, 1939 — Led American league pitchers in victories with 24.

April 16, 1940—Pitched no-hit game against Chicago.

Joe Jacobs Loses Fight—With Death

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 23 — The fight mob along Broadway said

"So long" to Joe Jacobs today.

Little "Yussel the Muscle," the colorful—almost legendary—character who came up out of New York's tough "Hell's Kitchen" to manage one world heavyweight holders in assorted lighter

divisions died

last night of a heart attack.

He passed away in a doctor's office, just

13 days short of his 44th birthday and just a few minutes after returning from supervising another of his

"gag" stunts by which he gained for his fighters the publicity so important to the science of fighting.

Everyone agreed the fight game had lost a man whose antics and accomplishments probably never would be equalled.

had softened the stubbornness of his lips. "After all," he said, "if it had not been for you, discovering that entrance would have been a most difficult job. Now we know exactly where to look. So in all justice, if you insist, I must permit you to go up there with me."

His reluctance was so obvious that I opened my lips against my urgent inclination—to tell him that I would not go to the attic if he did not wish it. But Lillian is made of sterner stuff, and she forestalled my renunciation with a quick acquiescence.

"That's wonderful of you, Chief," she said enthusiastically. "When do we start?"

He shook a warning finger at her as he answered her question. "Gently, gently," he said. "We'll go up there a bit. But there are some things I want to find out about this entrance to the house before we go. Let us give our attention to this map first. Will you sit down?"

"If we do we won't be able to see as well," Lillian retorted. "Suppose you sit down, and we sort of cluster round and look over your shoulders. We'll promise not to lean on you or breathe down your neck."

She smiled as he generally does at her nonsense, and seating himself again, spread a second map on the table before him.

"What do you make of that?" he asked, after a pause during which Dicky, Lillian and I scanned the ancient document closely.

Old Staircase Revealed

"You tell him, Madge," Lillian said promptly. "You're more familiar with the interior arrangements of this house than any of us, I think."

"Why?" I said, trying to keep excitement out of my voice and failing. "There must be a spiral, very narrow staircase, leading from the chimney breast down through the wall clear into the cellar, and coming out—let me see—" I traced the course of the staircase with my forefinger, calling up a mental image of the farm house cellar as I did so—"just behind the preserve closet. The wall there is very thick. There must be another door there."

"There probably is," Dicky said. "But they don't need to use it, except to bring men into the cellar, so as to catch us above and below. But this staircase goes on down into a sub-cellar, and then on out into a tunnel somewhere."

Amazing Discovery

Dicky traced the markings with his finger, then looked at my father with amazement in his eyes. "Interminable is the word, sir," he said. "Also incredible. It runs under the old barn, and there's an opening into the cow stable indicated. The last entrance must be in that almost impenetrable underbrush about two hundred feet from the wood road at the back of the farm, but well out of sight of it."

My father had followed his tracing finger as had Lillian and I, and he gave quick corroboration.

"Yes, that's it," he said, and Lillian exclaimed a gusty breath. "What a set-up for those old lads who built those things!" she exclaimed. "They could emerge from their tunnel or get into it at any one of three or four places."

"It's also a pretty handy set-up for Jack Leslie and his gang," Dicky drawled. "No wonder he felt so sure he could demand the surrender of Mary and Noel."

My father pushed back the papers and rose from his chair. "Let us go up to the attic now," he said and, tight-lipped, he led the way to the attic stairs.

ABOUT ANYTHING In and Around Marion

Hitching Ring

It's been a long, long time since hitching rails were in vogue in uptown Marion. But James Rynn of 208 Bellevue avenue pointed out to us the other day that some remnants of the horse and buggy age still exist. He told us there's a good-sized iron ring imbedded in an iron pin on the sidewalk at the northeast corner of Center and State streets. Mr. Rynn, who is a captain at the Central fire station, says it probably has been there for years and no one has taken the trouble to remove it. We've passed by there a number of times but never noticed the hitching ring. Now we're going to make a special trip to check up on the captain.

$40,000 Tenor?

Roger Lovelace, associated with Floyd G. Brown, sanitary engineer, whose office is located in the Marion building on South Main street, was among baseball fans attending the opening day game at Cincinnati. Roger got a chuckle out of the program published by the Cincinnati team. It contains short sketches of all members of the team. Of Vince DiMaggio, the rookie brother of New York Yankee Joe DiMaggio, the sketch was brief. Roger, recalling that the Reds paid something like $10,000 to acquire Vince, chuckled when he found the program had this to say of the younger DiMaggio: "He has a fine singing voice."

PENNSYLVANIA G. O. P. CHEERED

Republicans Elated by Size of Primary Vote; Democrats Must Revamp Setup.

By The Associated Press
PHILADELPHIA, April 25—Pennsylvania Republicans, elated over the size of their vote in Tuesday's primary, plunged today into a two-day campaign to revamp their state organization.

Major problem confronting Democrats was selection of a successor to David L. Lawrence who surrendered the party leadership and announced his retirement as state chairman after U. S. Sen. Joseph F. Guffey's decisive victory in the fight for re-nomination.

Backed Loser
Lawrence, who split with Guffey in the 1933 primary, backed Walter A. Jones, Pittsburgh oil man, who lost to Guffey by nearly 100,000 votes. William M. McNair, former Pittsburgh mayor, trailed far behind.

Lawrence insisted he wasn't giving up politics, but would continue active in his home county of Allegheny (Pittsburgh). The Democratic state committee must meet no later than May 22 to elect a chairman and other officers.

Despite the lively Democratic fight for party control, Republicans, united behind the successful senatorial candidacy of Jay Cooke, Philadelphia city chairman, polled the largest vote in statewide balloting.

Republican State Chairman James F. Torrance summoned his state committee to meet May 11 and declared that "Republicans in Pennsylvania are the victors in the first battle of the presidential campaign."

STREET ATTACK?

At first glance this might look like a street assault or an abduction. But in reality, a gentleman friend behind Mrs. Gerald Brockhurst is doing his damndest to hide the lady's face from the camera as she departs from a London, England, court after divorcing her artist husband, said to be the world's most expensive portrait painter. Artist Brockhurst now is a resident of New York and Palm Beach, Fla.

LAKE PORTS HIT BY TUG STRIKE

Walkout Affects 15 Cities, 400 Men; Lorain Union Opposes Action.

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, April 25—W. G. Campbell, Cleveland manager of the Great Lakes Towing Co., said a tug strike affecting 15 Great Lakes ports started at 6 a. m. today.

The towing concern, the largest on the lakes, also operates at Ashtabula, Conneaut, Fairport, Huron, Lorain, Toledo and Sandusky, O., Chicago, South Chicago, Ind., Buffalo and Tonawanda, N. Y., Erie, Pa., Duluth, Minn., and Sault Ste. Marie.

John Malloy, president of the Cleveland local of the A.F.L. Tug Firemen, Linemen and Oilers union, announced that all the locals except Lorain had voted to strike. Malloy said, however, that a majority vote of locals decided all issues.

The strike vote was taken after a breakdown in negotiations for a new contract. The union seeks a $9-a-day wage with a guarantee of 10 months work a year and time and a half for the half hour ahead of time they are required to report for duty.

Capt. Chas. W. Willett, company president, said earlier this week that granting of the requests would increase company costs $150,000 a year and added that the firm was unable to meet the demands.

Malloy reported the company later offered a 50-cent raise from the present $8.37 rate, which the union was willing to accept, but would not accede to the other demands.

Campbell estimated the walkout affected about 400 members of the union and about as many members of the Licensed Tugmen's Protective Association.

Charles Berry, president of the 30-member Lorain local, which embraces employees at Sandusky and Huron, said the group voted 11 to 3 against a strike.

The high court said that until the term "licensed physicians" was more clearly defined, osteopaths were eligible and ordered the Darks county election board to accept nominating petitions of Clarence D. Koster as a May primary candidate.

The attorney general previously had ruled that only physicians practicing medicine and incumbent osteopaths could be candidates for coroner under the statute.

By refusing a review, the court upheld constitutionality of a Cincinnati city ordinance empowering the city manager to order police destruction of gambling devices.

The ordinance was attacked by the League for Preservation of Civil Rights and Internal Tranquility.

Confirmation of the re-appointment of Charles U. Read as postmaster at Upper Sandusky was reported today by the United States senate, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Washington, D. C. # GAS CO. DIRECTED TO REINSTATE STRIKERS

Ohio Fuel Workers Also To Get Back Pay.

By The Associated Press
CLEVELAND, O., April 25—A 1937 C.I.O.-Oil Workers strike resulted today in a national labor relations board order against the Ohio Fuel Gas Co.

The board held that the utility engaged in unfair labor practices and ordered the reinstatement with back pay of 13 members of the Oil Workers International union.

It directed the company to reinstate or place on its preferential list all employees who went on strike in January, 1937, in fields located in Medina, Ashland and Wayne counties. The order also included partial pay restitution to a striker who refused reinstatement after the strike.

The board dismissed the cases of 33 other strikers, ruling they were not laid off because of discrimination.

Regional labor board officials declined to estimate total pay restitution or the number of workers who participated in the strike.

The board found that the company's "supervisory employees engaged in a vigorous and concerted campaign to discourage membership in the union."

Neither Life Nor Death Halt Census Takers in Work

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON—Life and death did not halt the census takers in their work.

One of the biggest problems encountered by any enumerator was the death of a household head.

When the enumerator walked into the living room, he found a man in a hurry and needing help.

Noting to the kitchen, the enumerator told the woman to get some water and get some linen in a hurry.

The enumerator went into the kitchen. After a few minutes, the woman and Mr. and Mrs. Mecklin came and the baby boy.

Overjoyed, the father turned to the enumerator.

"What's your name?" he asked.

"Let's name the baby Oliver," said Mecklin.

Mrs. Mecklin agreed.

fact is, it would seem, that the strength of the Navy relative to Japan's navy alone, disregarding all the European navies, is declining, and on present prospects the position in 1941 will be worse than it is today. The state of our Army is simply deplorable measured not by any fantastic notion of sending another army to Europe but by the elementary needs of national defense in this hemisphere. Except perhaps in aviation where an expansion of facilities is being subsidized by the Allies, our armament industry is not even partially adequate to support a third-rate war.

It is all very well, therefore, for the President to foresee the seriousness of our own position in the world today. But how is he to reconcile his estimate of the danger with the lackadaisical, disorganized boondoggling which he tolerates in place of a serious effort to strengthen the national defense? Mr. Dewey may be the captain of a ferry boat, aspiring to be admiral of the fleet. But Mr. Roosevelt is an admiral of the fleet who has encouraged a laxity of discipline and a kind of aimless frivolity in the crew which might just be not too dangerous in an excursion boat on a holiday.

Silence

As a matter of fact the Republican politicians do not wish to discuss foreign policy and national defense because none of their avowed candidates has any experience or proved ability in the field. And the Democratic politicians, though they have a rather better record of having foreseen the events, would be most awfully vulnerable if there were a Republican of sufficient caliber and stature to ask them what they have done and what they are doing to make their country as strong as they think its position is dangerous. That is why the Democrats have as little stomach for a serious discussion of the national defense as have the Republicans. For whereas the world, never before, so far as I am able, who also has experience, the Democrats have a record of not having prepared the country adequately to deal with the situation which they have foreseen.

That is why the American people find themselves in this extraordinary predicament where no public man who has high responsibility, or aspires to exercise high responsibility, is telling them one single important thing that he and his advisers think privately about the future of American security in an exceedingly turbulent world. Never before, so far as I know, have the immediate interests of politicians caused them to establish what is, in effect, a total blackout of serious discussion in the crucial areas of public policy.

These politicians are trifling with the people and they are now gambling with the destiny of the United States. They are refusing to inform the people and to guide them in a time when the people need, as they have rarely needed before, the very best of the mind and the very best of the courage that is in their public men.

MERCHANTS ARRANGE HALF-DAY CLOSING

Wednesday Afternoon Holiday Schedule To Start in June.

A majority of Marion's retail merchants, meeting at the Chamber of Commerce offices yesterday, agreed to observe Wednesday afternoon closing during June, July and August. The first Wednesday to be affected by the plan will be June 3. The only exception during the summer will be July 3, on which the stores will be open all day because of the July 4 holiday.

It was also urged that all retailers express appreciation to the police department and Municipal Judge Hazen for enforcement of the two-hour parking ordinance. A majority of the business men indicated they would send letters or call.

The co-chairmen of the retailers group, C. A. McGrew and Oscar Lusch, will send a letter of appreciation also. The leaders expressed the opinion that the enforcement drive launched recently has not only brought greater respect for traffic laws but also has made more space available for parking. Many merchants reported their customers have expressed appreciation at being able to park in the business district for a limited time.

M'NUTT URGES WIDER U. S. TRADE HORIZONS

Calls for Peaceable Expansion of Commercial Field.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, April 25—Paul V. McNutt called upon American exporters and importers last night to demonstrate the folly of war by widening trade horizons peaceably.

The federal security administrator and former governor of Indiana told a world trade dinner that regardless of who won the European war, tendencies to construct a large European trade area "where buying and selling is controlled from one point and where foreign sellers would be largely excluded" would continue. "America should use its influence," McNutt said, "to induce the rest of the world to follow the path of free trade and to reduce the barriers to commerce."

This wise Doctor knew liver bile flow freely every day into your intestines or fatty foods can't be properly digested and you may become constipated. So kept this in mind when he perfected famous Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. Olive Tablets, being purely vegetable, are wonderful, yet they secure thorough bowel movements and help stimulate bile flow. # NEW ENGINEER FOR CCC PROJECTS HERE

W. Leonhardt Helping Set Up Jobs for New Camp.

W. Leonhardt, engineer in charge of preliminary surveys of proposed projects, has been transferred to Memphis, Tenn. He left Marion today.

L. M. Leonhardt, engineer in charge of work at the Attica CCC camp, will take over Mr. DeWeese's duties here, Supt. Daum reported. For the present Mr. Leonhardt will conduct the work from his present quarters at Attica. He may be contacted here through the office of county commissioners or County Engineer Carl H. Towner.

He will take charge of the surveys of various suggested projects to determine the estimated costs. Meetings of landowners interested in drainage programs are being held this week. Last night a meeting was held at Martel in connection with the Hurr ditch and tonight another is scheduled at the C. C. Uhl farm two miles north of Big Island, where property owners along the Kannel ditch will convene.

Work at the site of the CCC camp on the Marion County home farm has thus far been confined largely to well drilling, officials reported. No definite date has been set for the establishment of a camp here, but it is expected to be in operation early in June.
